

Librarian's Corner

Kolter Elementary ♦ Cynthia Oubre, Librarian ♦ December 2015 Vol 13

Notes from the Librarian

The Book Fair was a huge success.

To the chairpersons, Eliana Teague and Naomi Wittlin for all of their hard work during the whole week. A gargantuan thank you to ALL the volunteers who came out to help with the sales, the re-stocking of the shelves, the straightening up of books, bagging book purchases and more! A HUGE thank you to the grandparents and others who came to the book fair to make purchases.

AUTHOR VISIT

J. Scott Savage presented an awesome presentation to 4th graders about his new series, Mysteries of Cove, which is already on bookshelves at Barnes & Noble. The library is looking into purchasing this series since much interest was shown.

In addition to Mr. Savage visiting, we had an unexpected visitor that decided drop by hover Cynthia Rylant's books.

DECEMBER

December is like a gentle,
constant rain
Time stands still Waiting, enjoying,
anticipating, talking Watching movies you get to see only one time a year
The best part is never knowing if snow will fall Enough...
To cancel school
December is like a gentle,
constant rain.

2015-16 BLUEBONNET BOOKS

Be sure and complete your Texas Bluebonnet Award individual tracking sheet to be eligible for the Bluebonnet breakfast in January. Tracking sheets available in the library.
